Courtesy Coins

Dear Families,

I am delighted to write to you with the details of our new incentive at school. We are introducing golden house points – Courtesy Coins. These house points will be awarded by members of staff or visitors to the school to any children being courteous and polite. The children will be able to add these house points to their totals in the classroom and use them towards getting a book from the vending machine.

Courtesy coins will be collected in the jar near the library. I have set the children the challenge of filling the jar. When the jar is full, we will have a whole school reward of a picnic in the park!

Thank you for your continued support,

Mrs Drinkall

Headteacher
